Great information for the newbie to affiliate marketing

By AC

Oh boy I have so much to learn. This book provided me with great information on tapping into the audience, advertising using Adsense, a detailed guide on how to put information into blogs and websites using affiliate offers via Clickbank, how to include PayPal buttons on your site, the basics of building an android app (i'll definitely be looking into that one more), YouTube videos and other ideas too! Wow, I've only flicked through it so far so now it's time to go back and look into that information a little closer and start applying!

Excellent book shows you what is available online to make some extra money

By Peter Legrove

Excellent book if you are starting out with how to make money on the internet. Covers all the bases so you have a good idea about what is available to try out, as there are many options to choose from when you go online. I didn't realize there were so many different ways to make an income from the internet. So if you want to go online to make money then this book will give you a very good starting point.

High level overview for beginners

By Ceady

Per the title this book really is for beginners. This felt like a high level overview of areas where affiliate markets are available. Noticeably lacking for me was actual detailed specifics on getting into any one area and as such I found no value in it for me personally.
