4th in a series of daring helicopter rescues by the author, this Volume II continues the legacy of young...sometimes very young...helicopter crews and their rescue missions. Sometimes they were successful and sometimes, unfortunately, they were not. The crews performed these rescues virtually on a daily basis, so that others may live. These stories will strengthen the definitions of brotherhood and devotion to duty. Duty, Honor, Country. Leave no one behind...it was their job!

Aviation crews in combat and helping each other to survive

By SCARECROW

This book is beyond excellent. With stories told by numerous pilots and crew alike you get a great all around aspect of what they had to endure. From harrowing missions to standard flight all seem to end up riveting you to the action. The stories will tell you how these men served their country at war, while helping each other to survive. Nothing is left out of their stories and one can not only read into their concern and love for their fellow aviators but actually feel their emotions come to life within yourself. Reading these stories, you'll be glad they took the time to make known what they accomplished to survive. We must be proud that men such as they served our country. Thank you each for you service and sharing your "private" stories. To those that didn't survive, God Bless and thank you for your supreme sacrifice.

A thrill a minute

By Erl Gould Purnell

The second of Phil Marshall's Viet Nam helicopter collections. If you want to learn something about what it takes to be a helicopter pilot, aircrewman or medic, give these two books a go. Thanks for telling the stories. Hand salute.
