Serving in Second Place

By Edwin Handley

Greg,

Thank you for this great book. In an age where we are driven to be on front street, and we feel the pressure to make a name for ourselves, your book reminds us that we are not all called to be a Moses. Many of us are called to be a Caleb or Aaron and hold up the arms of those we serve.

"The Blessings of Serving Another Man's Ministry" confirmed the conviction that we serve best where we are called to serve.

Thanks,

E. Handley, M.Div

Greg's an example of a great servant and a great leader!

By Robert Chang

I heard him speak at my home church (Cornerstone Church of San Diego) a few months ago and last month at Morris Cerullo's conference in San Diego. The examples from his life make the seven serving secrets of his book come alive, simply and clearly. It is biblical and authoritative, as he lives what he writes about, both serving Morris Cerullo and leading others with the same anointing the past 25 years. Loved it! I bought it on a Friday night and finished the 48 pages by early Saturday morning. You will love it too!

A True Man of God

By Mr. David Bradley

It is clear in this book that through his obedience to the Lord, Greg Mauro has retained what to me is one of the most important human qualities of all: humility. To have been over ambitious as a younger man would have made him a prime target for satan to destroy with all the temptations he throws at a young person trying to build up a successful Ministry. Greg was safer working with Brother Morris Cerullo for these past 26 years. But he has stood the test of time and as such the Lord is now challenging him to Minister in his own right; and my observations are that he is doing a wonderful job, so pleasing to the Lord. My Wife, Son, Daughter and I are lifted by Greg's writings and teachings and look forward to a more prolific output while acknowledging with thanks and gratitude the work he has carried out over nearly three decades with the Ministry of Morris Cerullo. This book is short - yet speaks volumes. I recommend it from the bottom of my heart.
