This is a great read. A short book - more a novella ...

By James m Adams

This is a great read. A short book - more a novella - set on the coast of Northern California and featuring an interesting cast of characters set around a murder mystery. The characters are nicely drawn, the dialogue believable and the sense of place totally right. If you have a lazy summer afternoon to spare, this one's for you.

A excellent story for today's Times!

By Florcali

Leo was a pioneer and the story exposed
This. The coach and the Mayor were the Typical Blow hard types .their offspring
A chip off the old block .A real portrayal
Of the Well known Wind bags and Blow
Hardship. The Donald Trumps and Scott
Walkers laden with the Bully and Judgemental attitudes. The minister
Was as corrupt and self righteous as Mike Huckabee . Sum all leaving a rotten Taste in one's mouth . Untruths were just Plain Liars.

Was it really a dream?

By Stella Ann

I started this story and couldn't stop till I finished it. It held my attention and was an easy read. I must admit being a former classmate of the Author I was looking for any reference to those high school years we shared and how they may have changed him. I look forward to many more plots from Bill. There are lots of plots to be derived from the corruption and small mindedness of another city north of the mouth of the Klamath River (not mentioned in this story). Carry on.
