One of the Best Collections of Advanced Christmas Music Piano Solos

By David Trindade

One of the best collections of Christmas music advanced piano solos available. The Mozart-like arrangement of "Deck the Halls" is outstanding. Dan Coates has outdone himself with this work.

Enjoyable book for advanced pianist

By Kim Binkley

Book was 5 days later then I was told it would be. Amazon is usually much better about being on time. There are a lot of great songs in the book and being a very advanced pianist I can sight thru the majority and have found some to play for Preludes at Church that wont require any practice time. Not sure most of them would be right length for an Offertory. If your advanced at all, you will zip right thru and really enjoy most of the songs. Again several are pretty short in duration.

Let me know if you like my review. This will encourage me to continue writing and updating my reviews, and leave a comment if you have any questions, I will be more than happy to answer if I can be of help :)

Beautiful arrangements of piano music. Some are easier than others, which gives a good range of pieces that you can pick up right away and others that you'll want to spend a little more time working on.
