excellent collection, not necessarily the exact transcriptions

By Mindful Consumer

i had tried to get my hands on this collection for more months than i care to count, and when i finally was able to secure a copy, i was mostly very pleased. the arrangements look to be nearly note for note transcriptions of what yann tiersen has written, however i was a little disappointed in two songs in particular that were NOT the actual transcriptions:

sur le fil
la dispute

i have two previous printings of tiersen's sheet music, so i was able to compare, and those versions present in this book are slightly scaled down versions of the actual music. not a huge deal, but i'm still unsure why this choice was made.

the song listings are as follows:

comptine d'ete no.2
comptine d'ete no.3
naomi
le vieux en veut encore
toujours la
comptine d'ete no.1
la piece vide
la dispute
sur le fil
les jours heureux
la chute
l'absente
l'echech
le retour
la valse d'amelie
comptine d'un autre ete: l'apres-midi
le moulin

plus d'hiver
le matin
la plage
mary
les retrouvailles
la jetee

the only other beef i have with this printing is the binding. it's pretty tight, so when it is sitting on the piano, it tends to want to close up...all the time. i'm sure i can work around it, but it seems counterintuitive to print a sheet music book in such a way.

all in all, i am entirely pleased to have this collection at long last. the music is beyond lovely, and to be able to replicate it at my piano is a gift.

It's pretty simplified, but also sounds enough like his work to keep you wanting to play. It's perfect for someone who is trying to pick up piano again.
